Get Ready for A Spooktacular Halloween!

Last year, Chinatown B.I.D. gave away more than 60 lbs of candies to kids, families, and visitors on the day of Halloween. This year, Trick or Streets comes back with only more fun and freights! Featuring Bindlestiff Family Cirkus, carnival style games, Treasure Scavenger Hunt, and more surprising pop-ups for photo ops on streets! Join us on 10/31/2024 on Pell and Doyers Street!

CHINATOWN CARNEVIL

1

Carnival Style Games

Play games to win treats and prizes! We prepared Witch Hat Memory Game, Candy Corn Guessing, Cauldron Toss, Spin the Wheel, and Lucky Duck!

2

Treats Scavenger Hunt

Stop by Anime Claw, Icy Melon, Koré Coffee, Laankee, Lemomo, LoveMi, Miss Du, ChangLai Noodles Fishballs Noodles, Once More, Paper Sons Cafe, Soft Swerve, SugaBox, and Teazzi for some treats!

3

Bindlestiff Family Cirkus Show

Enjoy a variety of family-friendly performances hosted by the Bindlestiff Family Cirkus! Don't forget to take photos with the magicians, jugglers, dancers, and the community sculpture!

4

Costume March

Are you ready to show off your costumes? We look forward to marching with you in Chinatown before you head over to the NYC Halloween Parade. From creepy to cute—whether you're going solo or dressing up the whole family—dance with our marching band!

5

Spooky Pop-Ups

Jack-O'-Lanterns, Mr. IceScream, and Haunted Archway pop up from the ground! Explore Chinatown streets and take photos with our amazing Halloween decorations!

In partnership with the Chinatown Partnership/Chinatown BID, the Museum of Chinese in America (MOCA) invites you to an insightful conversation with Mengxi Wang, photographer and author of Chinatown 32 Sequences. This book offers an immersive exploration of New York's Chinatown, capturing the essence of its people and culture. Through vivid photography and storytelling, Wang highlights the lives of longtime residents and new immigrants, offering an intimate look at the community's enduring legacy amid constant change.

Corporate Transparency Act

Businesses will need to report information by Dec 31, 2024 about the individuals who own or control them. Any newly formed businesses must do the same within 90 days of being registered with the state.

Businesses will be fined for not registering the appropriate information. Subject to civil penalties of $500+ for each day that they have not completed the filing requirement. Completing the form is free. You do not need to pay to process this one-time filing for your business.

Join NYC Dept of Small Business Services for an upcoming info session to learn:

- which companies need to file
- the contents and timing of the filings
- the process of completing such filings
